1. In Galati, an unspecified number of two-story buildings are under construction on Strada Traian to the corner of Strada Cezar. These buildings are to house approximately 200 government employees and their families. Houses of similar construction were reported being built in an area adjacent to the Galati railroad station. A large hall for the cultural activities of the railroad personnel will be called the "Cultural Hall Gheorghe Gheorghiu-Dej" and is also under construction in the vicinity of the railroad station.
2. The Braila-Viziru-Cioara-Urziceni and the Cioara-Tandarei-Fetesti highways have recently been reconstructed and paved with a layer of asphalt.
3. A railroad line to link the Constanta railroad station with the tracks to Mamaia, was under construction in Constanta. The new track will follow a course behind the Constanta cemetery.
4. A large building is under construction at the corner of Bulevardul Republicii and Strada I.G. Duca in Constanta. Three stories of the building will house the offices of the Sovromconstructie.
5. Construction work at an ammunition factory located on the Valea Draganului near Ciucea, in the vicinity of Bucharest, was abandoned in the fall of 1951.
6. The newspaper office building, the Casa Scanteia in Bucharest, which was scheduled for completion in 1954, will probably be finished during 1952. The press machinery and editorial offices have already been installed in the new building.
